Dear Tour Operator,

I am writing to advise that attendance passes for the Australian and New Zealand 2026 Anzac Day commemorative services on the Gallipoli Peninsula, Türkiye, are now open.

Visitors and tour guides will need to register their attendance. Entry to the commemorative services will not be permitted without an attendance pass. Tour guides will be able to register and manage group bookings on behalf of their patrons.

You can register for a tour pass here: https://commemorations.teg.com.au/tr/gallipoli/

Separately, all tour operators will need to register their coaches in advance through the online tour coach registration system here: https://accreditation.teg.com.au/tc-gallipoli/

Visitors and tour guides attending the commemorative services will go through attendance pass scanning and security screening process when entering each commemorative service. We encourage you to plan your journey and arrival times carefully to ensure you have sufficient time to progress through security.

Information about the commemorative services arrangements, including timings, will be routinely updated on the Department of Veterans' Affairs website: Anzac Day - Gallipoli, Türkiye | Department of Veterans' Affairs and we invite you to regularly check this site for updates.

If you have any enquiries, please contact us by email at COMMEMORATIVE.EVENTS@dva.gov.au or call 1800 838 372 (within Australia) or +61 6289 1133 (from outside Australia) and ask for the Commemorative Events Team.
