REGULATIONS OF PARTICIPATION

ARTICLE 1. ORGANIZING COMPANY

The Exhibition is organized by EUROPEAN EXPO and the manager of the company, Aggeliki Augoustinou..

ARTICLE 2. TIME AND PLACE

EUROPEAN EXPO has the right to change the exhibition's venue without obligation to compensate or refund any deposits to the exhibitors, in so far as there is a compelling need caused by the following:

- a) Force majeure due to extreme weather phenomena or natural disasters.
- b) Few reservations to fill the reserved exhibit hall.
- c) Any necessary change of plan which will guarantee the exhibition's success, as this is the primary goal of our company, in which case all exhibitors will be notified in due time. In case the exhibition is cancelled for any reason, EUROPEAN EXPO is obliged to refund the full amount the exhibitor has deposited.

ARTICLE 3. EXHIBITORS- EXHIBITS

As mentioned in the exhibition's information sheet.

ARTICLE 4. EXHIBIT HALL'S ARRANGEMENT AND DESIGN

EUROPEAN EXPO has the right to customize the arrangement of the booths and the interior of the exhibition hall in general, based on technical or other demands. Should you not accept this term as an exhibitor, you are no longer entitled to participate in the exhibition. In this case, any amount deposited in advance will not be refunded.

ARTICLE 5. MARKETING PROMOTION

The exhibitors are allowed to market their product using methods of their choice within the area of their booth. EUROPEAN EXPO has the right to interrupt any marketing event even within the limits of the exhibitor's booth if this event is a disturbance for neighbouring booths, or impedes visitors' access or violates safety precaution rules. No marketing promotion is allowed in the common space area except for labeling. EUROPEAN EXPO stands are also considered common space areas and must not be used for marketing reasons either. Booth constructions must not exceed 3m in height under any circumstances.

ARTICLE 6. LIABILITIES OF EUROPEAN EXPO – EXHIBITOR

EUROPEAN EXPO is responsible for the exhibition's security only during non-visiting hours. EUROPEAN EXPO is not responsible for any damage or theft during preparation works and dismantling. The exhibitor is obliged to insure their exhibits against natural disasters, theft, and other causes of destruction not mentioned in the present document. The exhibitors are not allowed to remove exhibits or other equipment from their booth before the exhibition is officially over. It is strictly forbidden to place explosives or flammable substances within the premises of the booths and the hall. Any damage caused by such an action is solely the responsibility of the exhibitor. During visiting hours, the exhibitors and their working teams must wear the badges distributed to them by the organizer.

EUROPEAN EXPO bears no responsibility whatsoever and is not obliged to reimburse the exhibitors or any other party for any accident or damage caused to human beings, merchandise or exhibits due to natural phenomena or any technical cause.

ARTICLE 7. BOOTH DELIVERY

Booths will be delivered to the exhibitors two days before the opening of the exhibition. In case neither the exhibitor nor their representative show up at least 24 hours before the opening, their participation agreement is thereby null and void, following procedures as stated in article 13.

ARTICLE 8. ENTRANCE

Entrance for the public and business visitors will be free.

ARTICLE 9. VERBAL AGREEMENT- OFF THE RECORD

NO OFF-THE RECORD AGREEMENT is valid regardless of subject or any EUROPEAN EXPO partner involved. An agreement is valid only as far as it is in a written form signed by both parties (EUROPEAN EXPO- EXHIBITOR).

ARTICLE 10. EXHIBITION FEES AND PARTICIPATION COST

As stated in the Exhibition's information sheet.

ARTICLE 11. SERVICES PER CATEGORY

As stated in the Exhibition's information sheet.

ARTICLE 12. REGISTRATION CONTRACT

The registration contract must be filled down to every detail required, and it must be stamped and signed by the authorized representative of the company. The terms of the contract are binding, and the details given will be valid for all documents issued by the organizer. Registration contracts with inadequate information which do not come with a deposit are null and void. Any objection by the exhibitor regarding the quality of the services provided by the organizer must be documented and sent to the organizing company as a notification within three working days after the final day of the exhibition, otherwise it is assumed that the exhibitor projects no objection to the services provided.

ARTICLE 13. CANCELLATION POLICY

Cancellation requests must be made in written form and they are considered acceptable only if made within 10 days after signing the registration contract. If the exhibitor does notify the organizer with a letter within the above mentioned time limit, they are no longer entitled to a refund. If the cancellation request is made thirty days or less prior to the opening day, the exhibitor is bound by law to compensate the organizing company with the full amount of the rest 50% of the total payment agreed by the contract. The organizing company is entitled to enforce the exhibitor in debt to compensate them by a court order. Under no circumstances is the exhibitor entitled to refuse full payment of the exhibition fees on the grounds of cancellation, unless their request for cancellation follows the aforementioned procedure, in which case EUROPEAN EXPO is obliged to return the deposited amount to the exhibitor.

ARTICLE 14. GROUPS

IT IS FORBIDDEN TO HOST two or more exhibitors in one booth. Every participating company or business must only project and promote the product/-s it officially represents or trades, which are also clearly stated in the Exhibition's catalogue. This term is also valid in cases where the same brand or product is represented and traded by a different company. Should the official exhibitor wishes to co-host other exhibitors not officially registered to participate, the exhibition fee will equal the total cost for the registered participant multiplied by the number of the non-registered co-exhibitors co-hosted (one non-registered co-exhibitor in the same booth would mean double the cost, and so on).

ARTICLE 15. LITIGATION

All litigation between the two parties of the contract fall under the jurisdiction of Zakynthos' Court of Law.

ARTICLE 16. INSURANCE – ACCIDENT PREVENTION

EUROPEAN EXPO bears no responsibility whatsoever and is not obliged to reimburse the exhibitions or any other party for any accident or damage caused to human beings, merchandise or exhibits due to natural phenomena or any technical causes, EUROPEAN EXPO can not be held liable for any theft or loss, not for damages caused by fire or natural phenomena. During the operation of the exhibition the exhibitors are responsible for the security of their stand, while EUROPEAN EXPO is responsible for the security of the common use areas.

ARTICLE 17. STAND RETURN - DEPARTURE

a. Every exhibitor is required, after the end of the Exhibition Event, to return to EUROPEAN EXPO, within the time foreseen in Article 2 of these Regulations, her/his exhibition stand in the same condition they received it.

b. After the end of the exhibition, exhibitors must remove anything they had placed or constructed at the stand they were using (general decorations) from EUROPEAN EXPO premises.

c. After this deadline, the items in the exhibition stand are considered rubbish and are removed. EUROPEAN EXPO has full and irrevocable authorisation from the exhibitor, who overlooked this obligation, to undertake all necessary actions to clear all items from the exhibition stand, but the cost and responsibility still lie with the exhibitor, while the objects and materials come into the possession of EUROPEAN EXPO and no compensation is due to the exhibitor.

SPECIAL ATTENTION:

Violation of these terms and regulations by the exhibitor directly declares the exhibitor's participation invalid without prior notice by the organizing company.

Violation of the present terms and regulations by the exhibitor directly cancels their participation without any prior notice by the organizing company.
