Dear Mr Ulusoy,

I am sending our most sincere condolences and sympathy for all the casualties of the tragic events that occurred in Turkey in recent days. The scenes that we are witnessing through media are leaving us speechless and utmost concerned for people in your country.

On behalf of Association of Croatian Travel Agencies and in my personal name I am offering the support and assistance in any way that you might need and please do not hesitate to contact us for any matter in which we may be able to help.

If there is any account number on which our members can make donations in order to help the people that befelled this tragedy, please let us know.

Please receive our warmest regards and wishes for a soon recovery.

Kind regards,

Boris Žgomba
President
